The Highland Howler

Celebrating Highland Farms' 10th Anniversary

Wow, can't believe how time flies. This September we celebrated the 10th anniversary of Highland Farms Boarding Kennel. We started with a 3 kennel facility (now the newly renovated Carriage House) and five years later in November, thanks to our wonderful customers, we opened the "big" kennel and store.

Last winter we starting offering dog bathing, respite day care and day boarding.

New this year is a re-designed website, thanks to our friends Gordon Holloway and Mary McKellar of Golden Dog Designs. The biggest addition on the website as been Shop Highland! This has been very exciting. We now offer a line of custom embroidered aprons with a choice of three humorous sayings and the dog breed of your choice though our on-line shop. More to come! Our boarding rates will remain the same for 2010.

We are also featuring the rock artistry of local artist Gail Mazourek. You won't believe what Gail can create on rocks and slate. We are carrying her dog art in the store. Check out her site at gailmart.com.

The Gray Family News: we lost our Highland Howler, Toby this past February. He is greatly missed. Orianna, our beautiful golden girl passed her Canine Good Citizen Test. She now needs to get her health clearances in February, as we plan to breed her in late May. Ace is a Cornell Companion and a Golden Retriever Rescue ambassador. Brenin is becoming a handsome golden boy!
